HWG Successfully Represents TE Connectivity Ltd. to Obtain CFIUS Clearance for Measurement Specialties, Inc.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Harris, Wiltshire & Grannis LLP (“HWG”) successfully represented longstanding client TE Connectivity Ltd. (“TE Connectivity”) to obtain clearance from the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (“CFIUS”) for TE Connectivity’s acquisition of Measurement Specialties, Inc. (“MEAS”), a transaction valued at US $1.7 billion and consummated on October 9, 2014. HWG also provided advice regarding Food and Drug Administration (“FDA”) regulation of MEAS’s business. Switzerland-headquartered TE Connectivity is a world leader in connectivity, providing engineered electronic components, network solutions, specialty engineered products, and undersea telecommunications systems on a global basis. MEAS is a diversified sensor technology company engaged in the development, manufacture, and sale of highly engineered and customizable sensors and sensors-based systems for customers in the automotive, medical, general industrial, consumer and home appliance, and military and commercial aerospace sectors.

HWG’s team was led by Kent Bressie and included Danielle Piñeres and Adrienne Fowler.
